PROLOGUE

Our planet in the near future.....

As our civilization advanced technologically and through the passage of time, the earth experienced a gradual decline.....Unexpectedly, this vast earth came to a surprising halt. Suddenly Super Monsters unimaginable to the human mind began to appear all over the world! This crazy universe gave birth to these quick transforming Supercreatures!!!! Super Monsters that would mercilessly destroy building after building. Super Monsters that would ignore the frenzied panic of the people. No human military came close to their power! Some time later the Monsters began to ask themselves, "Who is the strongest one among us?" And thus began the great power battle between the Monsters..... Eventually, the ultimate natural destruction site. "The Land of Civilization," became the final battleground for the 4 victorious Superpower Monsters.

To clear each Battle Stage, you must defeat your Monster opponent. And don't forget that destroying the City means more points added to your score.

MEET THE MONSTERS

ASTRO GUY

Instead of preventing the reign of terror with his huge fists and mighty torso, Astro Guy causes just as much, if not more, destruction as the Monsters he's trying to stop. A perfect case of all brawn, no brains.

Power Weapon: FLASH WAVE

GEON

Global warming melts the glacier that has kept Geon frozen in suspended animation for thousands of years. Now he's awake, with centuries of destruction to make up for. With his sharp horn and powerful tail, he delights in crushing Cities to rubble for the fun of it.

Power Weapon: FLAME CRUSHER

ROCKEY

It's like watching a Mountain sprout arms and legs. That's Rockey, and even Mother Nature quakes to see this ton of stone lumbering along, smashing flat everything in his wake.

Power Weapon: ROCKEY BOMBER

BEETLE MANIA

This huge, mutated Beetle grew up in the Rain Forest, but now he's looking for new places to destroy. Full of anger, and with no intelligence to speak of, this is a powerful foe to encounter.

Power Weapon: BEETLE MISSILE

HOW TO PLAY

1 Player:

Select one of the four Monsters, then eliminate the rest by defeating them in battle. Every time you strike your opponent, his LIFE GAUGE is reduced in power. When he becomes weak, hold him down for a count of 3 to win and move on to the next level. Each Stage level takes place in a different City, which is full of buildings and objects that can be destroyed for added points.

2 Players:

Each player chooses their own Monster and may now fight one another. The players can also choose their favorite Stage levels as well.
